

info@farmsafetyns.ca

Lloyd Evans Memorial Award Nomination

This award is given to an individual, ag business, organization, or farm who has had a positive impact on and continuously works towards improving health and safety within the Nova Scotia agriculture industry.

Criteria:

- Made significant contributions to support the advancement of health and safety in the agriculture industry
- Increased safety awareness within the industry or on the farm
- Increased knowledge of health and safety within the industry or on the farm
- Considered a safety leader in the industry or on the farm
- Promote a work environment that is respectful and supportive
- For farm businesses: no OHS compliance or stop work orders in the last 3 years.

Eligibility:

- Must be nominated by another individual, farm, organization or ag business.
- May not be a member of the Board of Farm Safety Nova Scotia or the Executive Committee of the Nova Scotia Federation of Agriculture or be a staff member of the Nova Scotia Federation of Agriculture.

Nominator Section

Name(s) of Nominator: _____

Name of farm, organization or business (if applicable): _____

Contact Information: Phone _____ Email _____

Nominee Section

Name(s) of Nominee: _____

Name of farm, organization or business: _____

Tell us about who you are nominating and why you think they deserve to receive this award:

Provide us with background information on their work towards improving health and safety in Nova Scotia agriculture industry and why they deserve this award:

Describe how their work/initiative/project had an impact on safety for the individual/organization/farm:

Any other details you would like to provide to support this nomination?